The programme was a very atractive one, but there were many scratches, though this did not mar the programme very

Sam Morse, an S to 5 shot in the first even'. was heavily backed to win. He sucreeded in getting under the wire first, but he had a sharp ussel with Ganymede and Lamar, both of whom were long shots. Necks separated them. Alderman Mac was a red hot favorite for the second event and was played as though it was il over. Freedom, on the strength of the fact that as had beat Red Eim in a trial a few days ago, was also heavily played, while Moonstone was said to be the real good thing of the race.

Queen of Trumps got almost in front and stayed there all the way. Freedom beat the root thing, Moonstone, two lengths. Queen of Trumps was at long ouds at the opening and was backed down.

Frances S. was a red-hot (everite at odds on and was heavily backed and Emma J. was well played. Sir Rae was played some by a Gloncester contingent, but the others were neglected.

The game opened at 2. 20 o'clock sharp, with the New Yorks at the ba.

Gore grounded to short. Tiernan got his base on balls, sho on a wild throw to first by the pitcher, who was trying to catch him napping. Mise went around to third. Rouse struck out. Tiernan scored on a passeed ball.
Connor a roomled to first baseman. One run.

The Jaspers were quickly disposed of,
O'Leary being thrown out at first by Rionardson, and collins at the same piece by sharrott, while Mara struck out.

Second Inning.—Richardson and Stattery were infrown out at first by Quinn. Waistier hit a low line ball to centre field, which agar douped.

Wissier was left, however, by O'Bourke

by Stattery.

Taylor then made the first hit the Jaspers had got during the game. Sheehan was thrown out, Richardson to Connor, O'Leary his a high foul fly, which was well taken by Connor, after a hard run.

President Dwyer Didn't Talk of Betting on the Lawn.

BIG HANDICAP SPECULATIONS.

The True Story of Jack Rose's Purchase as a Colt.

Michael F. Dwyer, yesterday denied that he had any intention of allowing betting on the lawn at the Elizabeth race track during the Spring meeting. It will be remembered that this assertion was printed in a morning paper, a few days ago, as part of an alleged interview with Mr. Dwyer. The writer then doubted that Mr. Dwyer had said anything of the kind, for the astate President of the New Jersey Juckey Club is not given to disclosing any of his plans before their execution. The paper quoted Mr. Dwyer as saying that betting would take place on the lawn, that bookmakers would flock to the meeting, and various other things. It was the same paper which said that Exile and Hanover were frisking about on the Coney Island track, when
